Hello Hello Hello Lovelies, I'm LaTersa Blakely, AKA The Mommy Maven in these streets and I love and enjoy helping moms and entrepreneurs make money at home and creating harmony within their homes. I pray that this guide helps you get your creative juices flowing!

Are you ready to make some extra money? Who couldn't use an extra $100 or even $1000 right? Well, ever since I was a kid, I always found ways to make money. What I finally realized is, I've always had the entrepreneurial mindset, I just didn't know what to call it. Now that the holidays are over, I know a lot of you are looking to make extra money so you can increase your bank account. I'm very creative and a crafty gal at heart so some of these you might laugh at them, but trust me they work.

1. Blogging. You can make money blogging. I make an extra $300-$500+ per month blogging and I'm expecting it to increase this year. There are lots of mommies and daddies out here making thousands of dollars and more. I can definitely show you how to start a blog.

You can make money blogging in several ways like selling your own products and services or selling ad space on your blog, selling affiliate marketing and a tons more.

2. Start your own business. You can start just about any online business and make money easily. The sky is no limit when it comes to making money in your business. I have a 7-Day Mini Business Startup Course that will walk you through how to start your business from the ground up.

3. Sell your baked good (cakes, pies, cookies, etc.) As a teenager, I would sell my cakes and pies and make pretty good.)

4. Type reports (resumes, articles, blog posts)
5. Sell your services on Fiverr
6. Host garage sales
7. Sell your crafts on sites like eBay, Etsy, or your own Shopify website
8. Tutor online or offline (Vipkids)
9. Host a workshop teaching couponing. I have been couponing for years now and I can show you how to save thousands of dollars in my Extreme Couponing Course.

10. Sell your coupons.
11. Sell Cans (coke products) As a kid, I would pick cans with my grandmother and sell them
12. Virtual Assistant

47. Clean houses. Believe it or not, you will be surprised at how much other moms just need a break. You can sign up at care.com and find homes that need to be cleaned and some of them start at $25/hour. So if you do maybe 3 hours at 4 hours that's an extra $300 that you can add to your savings account. This is one of the easiest ways to make money from home!

48. Turn your skills into cash.
Teach others what you know (workshops, online or live) Use a site like anymeeting.com, zoom.us.

49. Web designer. Love designing websites? make extra money doing that. You can sell your services on a site called Fiverr.com and start earning money right away once your account is approved. I must admit, I have used fiverr.com for years in my business.

50. Work a call center job at home. I have worked with several companies in the past. You can find out the top work at home jobs here.

51. Work at fast food restaurants. Places like Wendys, McDonald's, and Burger kings are always hiring.

52. A part-time job at retail stores. Jcpenneys, Target, and Ross are some to name a few.

53. Home Nurses Aide. You can check Care.com and your local area for places hiring CNAs and personal aides. You can find all types of jobs via this site.

Babysitting, pet sitting, housecleaning and so much more.

54. Makeup Artist. If you love makeup, you can teach makeup tutorials/workshops, or you can work in stores like Ulta, Nordstrom, and Mac cosmetics.
